1. Authorship Responsibility, Informed Consent, Criteria, and Contributions.

Each author should meet all criteria below.

I certify that:

- the manuscript represents an original work and that neither this manuscript nor one with substantially similar content under my authorship has been published or is being considered for publication elsewhere, except as described in an attachment;
- copies of closely related manuscripts are provided, and if requested, I will provide the data or will cooperate fully in obtaining and providing the data on which the manuscript is based for examination by the editors or their assignees;
- for papers with more than 1 author, I agree to allow the corresponding author to serve as the primary correspondent with the editorial office, to review the edited typescript and proofs, and to make decisions regarding release of information in the manuscript; or, if I am the only author, I will be the corresponding author and agree to serve in the roles described above.
- in human study a written consent has been obtained, studies have been performed according to the World Medical Association Declaration of Helsinki, the procedures have been approved by a local ethics committee.
- if individuals might be identified from a publication, an explicit consent was obtained.
- if reporting experiments on animals was indicated whether the institutional and national guide for the care and use of laboratory animals was followed.
- all Authors (defined below) have read and approved the content, that Authors have declared all competing conflicting interests, and the work has been conducted under internationally accepted ethical standards after a relevant ethical review.
- as stated in the Uniform Requirements, credit for Authorship had required substantial contributions to (a) the conception and design or analysis and interpretation of the data, (b) the drafting of the article or critical revision for important intellectual content, and c) final approval of the version to be published.

2. Confirmation of Reporting of Conflicts of Interest and Funding.

Authors are responsible for disclosing all financial and personal relationships that might bias their work.

- I certify that all funding, other financial support, and material support for this work are clearly identified in the manuscript.

- I certify that all my potential conflicts of Interest, including relevant financial interests, activities, relationships, and affiliations (including but not limited to employment/affiliation, grants or funding, consultancies, honoraria and payment, stock ownership or options, expert testimony, royalties, donation of medical equipment, or patents planned, pending, or issued), are disclosed in the Acknowledgment section of the manuscript.
