

Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest

It is required that each author disclose any potential financial conflicts of interest before a paper is published in Journal of Clinical Research in Pediatric Endocrinology .

The authors are requested to provide disclosure information when submitting their revised manuscript or, if the initial submission is accepted for publication without modification.

It is the responsibility of the corresponding author to ensure that all authors sign and submit the Author Disclosure form.

The corresponding author is also responsible for summarizing the disclosures in a paragraph that is to appear in the published article.

Please answer the following questions (all authors must answer)

1. Have you in the past five years accepted the following from an organization that may in any way have an effect on your results of your study or the conclusions of your review, editorial, or letter:
 - Reimbursement for attending a symposium?
 - A fee for speaking?
 - A fee for organizing education?
 - Funds for research?
 - Funds for a member of staff?
 - Fees for consulting?
2. Have you in the past five years been employed by an organization that may in any way have an effect on your results of your study or the conclusions of your review, editorial, or letter ?
3. Do you hold any stocks or shares in an organization that may in any way have an effect on your results of your study or the conclusion of your review, editorial, or letter?
4. Have you acted as an expert witness on the subject of your study, review, editorial, or letter?
5. Do you have any other competing financial interests? If so, please specify.

If you have answered “yes” to any of the above 5 questions, we consider that you may have a competing interest, which should be declared. Please draft a statement to publish with the article.

If you did not answer “yes” to any of the four questions above, we will publish ‘Competing Interests: None declared’

To learn more about this policy please read the editorial by Richard Smith BMJ 1998; 317 : 291-2.

DISCLOSURE FORM

Title of paper:

Manuscript number:

Date:

Signature (all authors to sign)

(Print name)

Conflict of Interest

Yes

No

Sig :

Sig :

Sig :

Sig :

Sig :

Sig :

Sig :